

This

Candidate Reg. No. 823

Diploma in Compressed Air Management is awarded to

Steven James Peacock

who, having satisfied the examiners has been duly awarded a

Pass

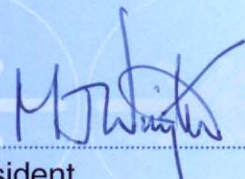

in the examinations on the 30th June 2009

DipCAM[®]

- A British Compressed Air Society initiative -

To equip industrial managers to make effective decisions on compressed air issues

- In understanding compressed air as a power medium
 - In emphasising safe working practices
 - In implementing energy efficient technology
 - In selecting components complying with legislation
- In ensuring installation, use and maintenance techniques are safe, effective and conform with current industry best practices

President

Executive Director

Unique training from the British Compressed Air Society

The British Compressed Air Society Limited

Representing Manufacturers and Distributors of Compressors, Vacuum Pumps, Pneumatic Tools and Allied Products.

33/34 Devonshire Street London W1G 6PY